

SCHOOL BOARD ACTS

Will Strenuously Oppose Reduction in Levy.

PROF. JENKIN'S STATEMENT

Supervising Principal Says the Proposed Action Will Cause Session of Schools to be Cut Short—Committees Instructed to Prepare Estimates

When the common council meets in special session to consider the annual budget and the school and general tax levies, President Cooper and other representatives of the school board will be on hand to make a strenuous fight against the proposed reduction in the school levy.

The matter was brought to the attention of the board last night by Supervising Principal Jenkins, who said: "Gentlemen, some action should be taken by this board in regard to the reduction of the school levy by the council. If the levy is reduced we will have to open our schools next session in November, or begin at the regular time and close the session in April. In either case the school session will last seven months instead of nine months."

The trustees discussed the matter at length and most of them expressed themselves as being bitterly opposed to the reduction.

Mr. Barrett's View.

Mr. W. E. Barrett, in speaking on the subject said that he had in mind the introduction in the next session of a cooking course in the eighth grade and high school, and, if possible, the establishment of a practicable business course in the high school grades. He declared that when the pupils graduated from the Newport News High school they should be so fitted and instructed in practicable business that they would be able to enter into the great march of life and make a living for themselves without having to take a year's course in a business school or manual training school. In explanation he cited instances where a number of the young lady graduates of the high school had been compelled to take a course in a business college before they could support themselves in life.

Further Mr. Barrett said, that if the city fathers decreased instead of increased the school levy for next year the introduction of both courses into the schools would have to be abandoned and the school term reduced.

President Cooper called attention to the fact that the school regulations state that the finance, rules and regulations committee of the board shall meet at the closing of each school session and prepare an estimate on the amount of funds required to properly conduct the city public schools for the following school session and that when the board has acted upon the estimate it shall be presented to the council.

Board to Act.

After the reading of the law by President Cooper, Mr. Graff made a motion that the committees of the school board immediately meet and make out an estimate of the funds required to properly conduct each department of the schools for the session of 1905-06 and that the estimates be submitted to the board in a special session, to be called by the president. The motion was adopted. The estimate will be sent to the council and the president of the board will attend the next council meeting to present it.

The trustees met in regular session in the assembly hall of the high school building last night at 8 o'clock with the following members present: Cooper, chairman; Barrett, Graff, Harrison and Wilkinson.

The clerk of the board read the minutes of the last regular meeting, which were approved as read.

Reports of Committees.

The finance committee submitted the following statement of the school funds on hand and expenditures for last month: State fund exhausted; balance on hand February 9, $12,458.69; amount received from delinquent taxes, $295.41; expended for teachers during February, $3,194.23; balance on hand March 9, $10,059.85. The report was accepted and filed. The teachers' salaries for March will be paid out of the balance now on hand.

The building and grounds committee submitted a lengthy report on the necessary school supplies for this month and those purchased last month. On the recommendation of the committee the board ordered that 5,000 promotion cards, 10,000 envelopes and 2,000 cards of "Form O," be purchased.

During the reading of the report of the building and grounds committee on the advisability of putting pipes for fuel gas into the Central High school building, the superintendent of buildings and grounds reported to the board that the gas main leading to the high school building has been tapped and that a pipe leading to a private residence has been attached. The board ordered the building and grounds committee to look into the matter and report to the board at its next meeting.

Wants Increase in Salary.

The clerk read a communication from Miss Lena Gregory, one of the teachers in the Central school, asking that the school board increase the salary of the teachers in the public schools. Miss Gregory set forth as her reasons for asking the increase is that under the new regime the teachers have to do more work than under the old. Further she said, that the teachers have to devote more time to their work than heretofore and that they should receive recompensation for same. The letter was tabled without discussion.

Supervising Principal Willis A. Jenkins submitted his regular monthly report to the board, mentioning the disposition made of the new desks recently ordered by the board. The section referring to the desks was referred to the building and grounds committee. The remainder of the report was filed.

Pilfering in the Schools.

President Cooper called Supervising Principal Jenkins' attention to the great amount of pilfering being done in the public schools. He said that a stop should be put to the practice.

In reply Professor Jenkins cited several instances where pupils had stolen property from their school mates which had never been recovered. Further the principal said that in the Twenty-eighth street school when whittling lessons were given in a certain room, two or three knives were taken by some of the pupils and that it was impossible to detect the offenders.

President Cooper instructed the supervisor to search all pupils in any room where any article had been stolen and punish the guilty parties.

Semi-annual Promotion.

When the report of the committee on rules and regulations was called for, shortly after the opening of the meeting, Mr. Wilkinson, acting chairman of that committee, asked that his report be passed over and taken up in executive session at the end of the meeting. The board complied with the request, but at the conclusion of the meeting, Mr. Wilkinson stated that the report of the committee was in reference to the system of semi-annual promotions and that he would present the report to be acted on when all of the members of the board were present. The matter went over.

A number of bills were ordered paid by the board.

The Board Adjourned Shortly After 10 o'clock.

PROPERTY OWNERS SUMMONED.

Greek Fruit Vendor Brings Up the Alleyway Question.

Warrants have been issued against eleven of the leading property owners of the city, charging them with obstructing the sidewalks. The complaint to Justice Brown was made yesterday by Attorney T. J. Christian, representing Thomas Anas, a Greek fruit vendor, who has a stand on Jefferson avenue.

Anas, with a number of other keepers of fruit stands, was in the police court yesterday charged with obstructing the sidewalk. His attorney declared that if the fruit dealers were guilty of violating the law, every owner of property in front of which there is an alleyway was equally guilty.

The authorities have never brought up the alleyway question in account of the enormous amount of trouble it would cause. Chief of Police Johnson states that it would probably cost the owners $300,000 to reconstruct their buildings and do away with the alleyways.

Attorney Christian insisted upon having the warrants and they were issued against the following: Barrett & West, First National Bank, Citizens & Marine Bank, Meyers Bros., Elias Pexser, American Exchange Bank, Dr. A. C. Jones, Pocahontas hotel and E. T. Ivy.

PICTURES FOR HIGH SCHOOL.

Educational Association Will Make Presents This Afternoon.

The Newport News Educational Association will present two handsome pictures to the High School Literary Society and the city public schools this afternoon at the regular meeting of the High School Literary Society. President Cooper, of the school board, will be present to accept the pictures in behalf of the schools.

The Educational association has given a number of teas recently and the proceeds have been used to purchase the pictures which will be presented this afternoon.

All of the members of the school board have been invited to be present at the meeting and it is expected that a number of the members of the Educational association will also be among the guests.

The Newport News Literary Society will meet in regular session in the assembly hall of the High school building this afternoon at 1 o'clock. The pupils have arranged a good program to be rendered during the meeting and several speeches will be made by the members of the school board.

BOYS IN CONFERENCE.

Interesting Meeting at the Y. M. C. A. Last Night.

A supper and conference of the older boys of the Young Men's Christian Association was held in the association hall last night. Mr. Charles R. Scott, boy work secretary of New Jersey and State Secretary L. A. Coulter, of Richmond, were present at the conference.

The supper was a delightful affair and after it the conference was held. The purpose of the meeting was to discuss plans and means for holding a boys' conference of the Virginia association at this city this fall. The meeting was well attended and every one seemed enthusiastic over the plans for the State conference. It is probable that the first meeting of the boys of the association in Virginia will be held here next fall.

Fire in Furnaces.

Fire was again made in the furnaces of the American steamship Massachusetts at the shipyard yesterday. The work of repairing the vessel is progressing rapidly and as soon as she has been floated out of the dry dock, her engines will be tested, as they have been almost rebuilt since the ship has been at the shipyard.

Dr. Skelton is Alarmed.

Dr. A. G. Skelton, of Bloodfield, says that he has been warned that certain parties of Bloodfield are planning to blow him up with dynamite. The doctor says that he will evacuate his Bloodfield quarters.

HEAVY FINES IMPOSED

New York Peddlers Must Pay Hundred Dollars Each.

SOLD COSTLY DRAPERIES, ETC

Wives of Prominent Citizens Were Customers of Joseph and Mensue and Gave Testimony—Special Session of Police Court—No Appeal.

Convicted of peddling without license, M. Joseph and A. M. Mensue, of New York, were fined $100 and costs each in the police court yesterday afternoon. The evidence against the men was clear and the decision was rendered without delay. No appeal was noted and the peddlers were given a day or two in which to arrange to pay their fines.

Joseph and Mensue came here several days ago and have been making a canvass of the city, selling dainty laces, draperies, etc., at low prices. All went well and the men were doing a fine business until Monday, when Sergeant Reynolds arrested Mensue. The peddler had with him a suit case containing several hundred dollars worth of goods. The arrest of Joseph followed and it developed that a number of the most prominent ladies of the city had been customers of the men.

Mrs. B. W. Crump, wife of Commissioner of the Revenue Crump, gave the information which led to the arrest of Mensue and among those who made purchases were Mrs. J. D. G. Brown, Mrs. Frank Henley, Mrs. W. W. Harwood, Mrs. E. W. Milstead and Mrs. D. G. Smith.

A special session of the police court was held yesterday afternoon to try the cases and several of the above ladies testified.

Mr. Allan D. Jones, counsel for the Merchants' Association, prosecuted the case and Mr. Hunter Boyd Gold represented the defendants.

WRIT OF ERROR REFUSED.

Max Felstein Must Pay Fine For Selling Liquor on Sunday.

The Court of Appeals yesterday refused a writ of error in the case of Max Felstein, the Warwick county saloon keeper who was fined $100 in the Corporation Court for opening his barroom on Sunday. The case was taken up on the ground that Felstein was tried out of his community and denied the right of trial by a jury of his vicinage.

Messrs. Jones, Berkeley and Garrow, attorneys for Felstein, have asked for a rehearing in the case.

A writ of error was also refused in the case of Jarrell Bros., taken upon the same ground.

Theatrical

George Ade's musical satire, "The Sultan of Sulu," was presented to a delighted audience at the Academy of Music last night while the rain poured in torrents out of doors. The production is offered by Henry W. Savage and, like everything Mr. Savage sends out, is complete in almost every detail. The company is an excellent one, gorgeous costumes are worn and the two stage settings used are unusually handsome.

In his book George Ade has furnished a satirical comedy which, though extremely farcical, would furnish a plenty of entertainment without music. Although there are only one or two especially pretty musical numbers, Mr. Watfall's score suits the piece and is above the average.

The story of "The Sultan of Sulu" deals with incidents which are supposed to have happened when American troops first occupied the Philippine Islands. The author devotes most of his satire to American customs, manners and conceits, and the lines are bristling with sharp humor.

Thomas Whiffin, who is the Sultan, is a clever comedian who gets laughs without resorting to a great deal of horse play.

His singing of "Rem-o-r-s-e" was a terrible warning against tempting drinks containing cherries.

The prima donna of the company is Miss Maude K. Williams, who was already a favorite here, having appeared at the Academy twice as Paul, in "King Dodo." Miss Williams has a strong and sweet contralto, engaging mannerisms and a queenly figure. Incidentally she appeared in two or three magnificent gowns last night.

Mr. George O'Donnell, as Col. Jefferson Bull, of the volunteers, has a fine bass voice and is well adapted to the part he assumes. Mr. Walter A. Lawrence, with a robust and clear tenor, was Lieut. William Hardy, of the Regulars.

There was hardly a weak spot in the company and the chorus was one of the best seen here this season. The girls were pretty and shapely and could sing and dance delightfully.

"Sergeant Kitty" Again.

A comic opera to be a real opera must have good music, clever book and a strong cast of principals assisted by a chorus that is made up of singers. All of these are to be found in "Sergeant Kitty," which will be seen at the Academy for the second time this season next Tuesday night.

Mr. George White who makes the presentation has a reputation in the theatrical field that assures excellence in production and he has assembled one of the strongest comic opera companies that ever stepped on the boards for "Sergeant Kitty."

Miss Helen Byron heads the company and Charles Wayne is the principal fun maker while there are many others in the long list.

"The Sambo Girl."

Miss Eva Tanguay, who is to appear at the Academy Monday night will, together with her big musical travesty company, present one of the most recent successes entitled, "The Sambo Girl." The piece comes heralded with much acclaim from many cities where "The Tanguay" has established a reputation for originality in comedy methods that, to say the least, is unique. Eva Tanguay is a particularly gifted comedienne, with a style peculiar to herself alone.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR SOCIETIES

Mass Meeting to be Held at Christian Church Tonight.

There will be a mass meeting of the members of the Christian Endeavor Union of this city and Hampton at the Thirtieth street Christian church tonight.

Several well known speakers will make addresses and a special musical program has been arranged for the occasion.

B'Nai B'Rith Lodge.

The Edward N. Calisch Lodge, B'Nai B'Rith, gave an enjoyable smoker at the lodge room last night. The hall was filled, many visitors from Hampton and Norfolk being present. Speeches were made by several members.
